language, which being read by an mterpretei, the Attorney General bade stay for it was not tiue Lopez in English made his submission, affirming that he never thought harm to her Majesty

Then the Marshal of the King's Bench was called and charged with the prisoners to convey them to the prison of the King's Bench and there to deliver them to the Sheriffs of London with a writ to see them executed So they were conveyed by water from Westminster to the Bishop of Winchester's stans in South-wark, from thence to the King's Bench, there laid upon hurdles and conveyed to the Sheriff of London over the bridge, up to Leadenhall, and so to Tyburn

At the gallows Lopez declared that he loved the Queen as well as he loved Jesus Christ, which coming from a man of the Jewish profession moved no small laughter in the standers-by
